in YOU
HAVING IT
ALL

Hello!

I'm Rachel, the founder of Nashville Nanny Agency, which I established back in 2014 with a clear vision in mind: to create Nashville's leading modern household staffing agency, perfectly attuned to the evolving needs of Music City.

As a professional nanny and preschool teacher, I witnessed firsthand the bustling expansion of Nashville and recognized the profound opportunity to assist the families flocking to my hometown.

Parents would approach me on the playground or pull me aside at school and ask "Where do I find someone like you?" It was then I realized how difficult it is for parents to find dependable, trustworthy, and loving care. I never felt like being a nanny or a teacher was "work" and I loved the feeling of helping families thrive and contributing to their well-being.

Now, as a wife and mom of two, my mantra is "Work Hard, Play Hard" and I cherish being able to be present with my own family, soaking up the moments that matter. Whether it's embarking on a spontaneous road trip, getting lost in the pages of a good book, or indulging in culinary adventures in the kitchen, I strive to live every day to the fullest.

It's an honor and a privilege to help your family and we look forward to helping you!

Sincerely,

Testimonials

"I can't praise Rachel and Nashville Nanny Agency enough for making the nanny finding process so seamless! We had been recommended Nashville Nanny from a coworker who said Rachel would take care of everything. I had been dreading starting the process of trying to find a nanny who would be flexible with my weird work schedule, have lots of experience, and be a sweet soul who would play a huge role in helping raise our daughter."

- Megan J.,

Every candidate we met was incredibly impressive and a dedicated career nanny. We quickly landed on the perfect fit for our family & our daughter absolutely adores her! Can't thank Rachel enough."

- Darcy P.,

We had the easiest and best experience working with Rachel to find a nanny for our 6 and 3 year old. After meeting and getting to know us, she intuited the right fit for our family and she was dead on! We're so thankful!

- Betsy P.

This was our first experience with a nanny agency and we highly recommend Rachel! She took the time to understand our family's needs and priorities. There wasn't a detail that went unnoticed throughout the entire search process from beginning to end. She understood the high-end expectations and privacy that we were looking for, and she found the perfect fit for our family! She continues to follow up and ensure our family is satisfied. We are grateful for Rachel and The Nashville Nanny Agency!

- Erica H.,

Nashville Nanny Agency helped our family find the greatest gift: a wonderful, loving, energetic nanny for our son. We are first-time parents, and we knew we needed help establishing a new rhythm and routine as a young family. Rachel showed us so much thoughtfulness and care as she got to know us as a family before beginning her search for our nanny. She asked all the right questions and helped us establish a vision for who this person might be, what they might value, and more. Rachel recruited the absolute perfect nanny for our family. Our nanny is such an effortless fit and keeps our family organized and well loved. I recommend Rachel at Nashville Nanny Agency to young families around us, as well. This is the best investment we have made as a family!

- Chelsea O.

FAQS

Q1. What makes Nashville Nanny Agency different?

We have access to candidates you won't find anywhere else and we take all the guesswork out of the screening process. From your weekly schedule and duties to family philosophies, we match you on every level with highly qualified candidates.

Q2. How long does the process take?

We recommend you allow at least 4 weeks for a thorough search. While many families we work with find their perfect candidate within the first one or two interviews, this time allowance affords the freedom to interview as many potential people as you wish.

Q3. How do you find your candidates?

They typically find us! We keep relationships with candidates we have worked with in the past, they tell their friends, their friends tell their friends, and so on. Because we like to cast a wide net, we will also recruit specifically for your position. When you work with us you get to take advantage of the exclusive network we've built over the years.

Q4. Is your agency vetted?

We are! The nonprofit organization, Association of Premier Nanny Agencies, vets and supports nanny agencies around the world. Since the nanny agency industry is largely unregulated, APNA members (such as Nashville Nanny Agency) undergo a rigorous review of all documents, materials, and agreements to ensure they are operating ethically and within the law.
